What makes this easier for students to do research?

- It allows them to dive deeper into a topic instead of only looking at the first website they find
- Short "Key Facts" allow students to find what they're looking for faster
- Websites, Videos, and Images (Oh my!) Find excellent primary and secondary sources to make research more "real"
- Students can challenge themselves by taking quizzes related to their topic
- Students stay ON TASK! All of the information is displayed in a more acceptable arrangement, as opposed to a boring list of websites where students can get distracted more easily
- CENSORED! No more worrying about age appropriate content!

By clicking on this "more" button under the websites tab, you will open a massive library linking all of the websites to their space in your concept cloud

Keep track of any notes and sources by using the "Journal" tab

The screenshot shows a web application interface with a top navigation bar containing 'Grok', 'Journal', and 'Gallery' tabs. The 'Journal' tab is highlighted with a red circle. Below the navigation bar, the page title is 'Project: the battle of gettysburg'. The main content area is titled 'the battle of gettysburg' and features a 'Key Facts' section with four entries, each with a plus icon on the left and a close icon on the right. Below the 'Key Facts' section are four green buttons labeled 'Websites', 'Videos', 'Images', and 'Quizzes', each with a right-pointing arrow and a '[more]' link.
